LJWL MEMORIES

Freaking out over how creative/exciting/wild my classmates' writing is will never not be fun. The people here are so talented, and our conversations about our art were always encouraging and life-giving.

WHAT'S NEXT

I would really love to be a part of the Master's in Writing program starting in the fall.

HOPE FOR THE FUTURE

I hope that life never gets boring. I hope the Lord never ceases to amaze and overwhelm me. I hope that everyone I love and will get to love stays safe and happy.
