LJWL MEMORIES

Hm, this one is recent but the 20th Homecoming creative event. Everyone who spoke was so moving and I needed to cry like 90% of the time from how deep the pieces were. That feeling of being in a creative environment and the reciprocity is one I won't forget.

WHAT'S NEXT

Plans to attend The New School and pursue an MFA in poetry.

HOPE FOR THE FUTURE

I hope for stability in my career and an abundance of creativity!
