LJWL MEMORIES

Sophomore year, Dr. Pedersen hosted a movie night over Zoom with my British Writers II class. Nobody showed up but me, so Dr. Pedersen played the movie through Zoom and left. I spent 2 hours watching a grainy movie through screen share on Zoom all by myself. It was so absurd, I still laugh about it.

WHAT'S NEXT

I dream to keep writing about music and eventually complete a Master's (probably in Literature).

HOPE FOR THE FUTURE

Peace and love for all my friends, and a cozy chair and a good book for myself.
