Literature, B.A. Writing Minor

LJWL MEMORIES

The time Dr. Martin and I drove across the country from Manhattan to San Francisco on the road, taking in everything that America had to offer us on the journey. We ended up going back and forth between the coasts several times and even found ourselves in Mexico at one point. It was a wild ride. All of this traveling and we didn't even have to leave our respective living rooms: the wonder of Zoom.

WHAT'S NEXT

I will be working on a ranch in Wyoming, helping to build a rehabilitation center for young women who have experienced trauma or abuse in their lives.

HOPE FOR THE FUTURE

I hope to one day reach Enlightenment.
